

Prediction Rules

1. General

1.1. These Prediction Rules apply when using the Platform for betting. Prediction markets allow players to bet against the Platform on the outcome of real-world events including politics, entertainment, finance, and culture. When placing a bet, the account holder automatically accepts the terms of these Prediction Rules and fully agrees with them.

1.2. Individual Market Rules: Each specific prediction is governed by its own "Market Rules Summary" visible on the market page. This summary defines the event or value being measured, the timeline, the specific conditions for a "Yes" or "No" outcome, and the verification source. The prediction results announced by any platforms and betting offices, as well as other information resources are not official sources of information for Platform.

1.3. Precedence: These Prediction Rules supplement the General Terms and Conditions. In the event of any conflict between the Market Rules Summary and these Prediction Rules, the General Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

1.4. The account holder confirms that at the time of betting, he/she has reached the age of majority allowed for betting according to the laws of the jurisdiction in which he/she is located. All information provided during registration must be up-to-date and accurate. The player understands there is a risk of losing money and cannot make claims to the Platform in connection with such losses.

1.5. The Platform reserves the right, without prior personal notice, to make any changes or additions to these Prediction Rules, regulations, and payment procedures, as well as to payment and betting limits. Conditions of previously made bets remain unchanged.

1.6. By accepting these terms, you agree that the Platform has the right to conduct identification, credit, and other verification (including video verification) checks as necessary. You agree to provide all requested information in connection with these checks.

1.7. The Platform reserves the right to suspend or restrict access to your account until checks are completed to our satisfaction. Verification of player documents shall not exceed 30 days, and verification of player bets shall not exceed 180 days. We also reserve the right to ask for the origin of your funds.

1.8. In case of suspected fraudulent actions, the Platform may require a video verification call via Google meet or similar services (in English). During the call, the player must be alone in a closed room and identifiable. The Platform is not obliged to prove the guilt of the player by providing evidence. According to the results of the video verification Platform may decide to cancel all bets of a player, including the withdrawal of all deposits made as compensation for the implementation of fraudulent actions, as well as the subsequent blocking of the account. Any decision made shall be final.

1.9. If a player refuses to go through the verification procedure, the Platform reserves the right to declare all bets invalid.

1.10. Registered players are prohibited from re-registering as new players. Players are prohibited from providing third parties use of their personal account. Two or more players are prohibited from making bets from the same IP address or local network to avoid collusion.

1.11. All information about the current progress of events is for informational purposes only; the Platform accepts no responsibility for inaccuracies.

1.12. The English version of these Prediction Rules takes precedence over all other versions and translations.

1.13. If an issue is not subject to these rules, the Platform reserves the right to finalize the decision based on the principles of fairness.

1.14. The Platform is in no way responsible for errors in entering, transmitting, displaying, or publishing betting information. If a bet has been accepted in error (e.g., obvious errors in odds or results), the Platform reserves the right to cancel it.

1.15. Hyperlinks to other sites are provided for information purposes only; the Platform is not responsible for their content.

1.16. Basic Terms and Definitions

1.16.1. Line: A list of suggested events with odds of potential winnings.

1.16.2. Player: An individual who has made a bet with the Platform.

1.16.3. Bet: An agreement where the player selects an outcome confirmed by the deposit of funds.

1.16.4. Outcome: An individual position in the market on which a bet can be placed.

1.16.5. Winning Odd: The number by which the bet amount is multiplied during settlement.

1.16.6. Result: The result of the event on which a bet was made.

2. Bets

2.1. A bet is considered valid from the moment it is registered and a "Bet accepted" message appears.

2.2. If odds change at the time of placement, the player must agree to the changed odds for the bet to be accepted.

2.3. Prediction bets may be accepted before the specified time. The Platform reserves the right to invalidate bets placed after the specified time or after the commencement of the event. The Platform may decline a bet request if checks fail, including market availability checks, integrity/risk controls, or payment authorization checks.

2.4. Players have no option to cancel a registered outcome after placing the bet.

2.5. Maximum bet amounts are determined by the Platform and are subject to change without notice. The Platform may impose special account limits for individual customers without explanation. Bet limits, account limits, and exposure controls may be applied or changed at any time. Bet requests exceeding such limits may be declined.

2.6. The Platform is the final authority responsible for the validity of any accepted bets.

2.7. Clients have no right to bet on events in which they are participants (e.g., candidates, consultants, or referees). Platform employees are also prohibited from betting.

2.8. Use of "bots," scripts, or automated software for decision-making is forbidden. Use of automated tools, abuse of errors, collusive behavior, account sharing, or other unfair conduct may lead to declined bets and, deposits voiding, suspension, or account closure.

2.09. Bets placed after the outcome is already known, or after a competitor has gained an advantage, may be invalidated.

2.10. Group bets or repeated bets on the same outcomes from different clients may be declared void if collusion is suspected.

2.11. Settlement is based on the original (actual) result announced by official protocols immediately after the end of the event. The verification source listed on the market page is the final authority. Markets may also be resolved or voided by authorized administrative decision where required for integrity, data-quality, or operational reasons. If the result can not be verified, the market may be void. If a market is voided, open valid bets on that market are refunded at stake amount, with no win/loss outcome.

2.12. The final betting result for wagering purposes may be declared and settled within 48 hours from the official conclusion of the event (unless different settlement times are specified for a particular event). In case of discrepancies in the data, payouts will be suspended until clarification.

- 2.13. Identity verification is required prior to processing payouts; false personal data may lead to account termination and cancellation of winnings.
- 2.14. All claims and disputes on bets must be submitted within 48 hours from the date of calculation.
- 2.15. AML policies apply; the Platform may restrict access for persons on sanctions or PEP lists.
- 2.16. Suspicion of foul play allows for a 180-day investigation. Confirmed fraud results in the cancellation of all bets for the entire period of play.
- 2.17. Mistakenly credited funds or winnings remain Platform property and will be deducted. Players must notify the Platform immediately of any incorrect crediting.
- 2.18. Users must report software errors and refrain from taking advantage of them.
- 2.19. Players are solely responsible for reporting any applicable taxes on their winnings.
- 2.20. The Platform is not liable for technical problems occurring on the player's side.
- 2.21. Platform reserves the right to refuse to accept bets of any kind from the betting participant without prior notice, reimbursement, explanation or reason state.
- 2.22. Platform is not responsible for changes in the amount of payments associated with exchange rates fluctuations of both fiat and cryptocurrencies
- 2.23. Where bets or reporting involve multiple currencies, conversion rates and rounding rules determined at processing time may apply.
- 2.24. Payouts and refunds are processed through integrated payment/wallet providers. Processing completion depends on provider availability and compliance requirements
